

PHARMAOFFER PLATFORM PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

Your personal privacy is important to us. Access to your personal data is subject to strict security controls and we will not share it with third parties. This Privacy Statement complies to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) EUR 2016/679.

Art 1. Definition of the service

Art 1.1

The Pharmaoffer Platform is an online marketplace that brings together the global availability of pharmaceutical raw materials in an extensive database.

Producers and Traders, either represented by legal entities or single person companies, of raw materials (“Supplier(s)”) can amongst others, after opening a Pharmaoffer account (“Pharmaoffer Account”), upload their product portfolio and quality documents.

Anyone who is interested to buy these products, either represented by legal entities or single person companies, (“Buyer(s)”) can search the extensive database and, after opening a Pharmaoffer Account, sent inquiries to Suppliers in order to obtain quotations. Apart from this Buyers can after approval of the Supplier, download producer and product related documents and information. Without approval of the Supplier it is always possible to download the Certificates of Analyses.

Art 1.2

Buyers can upgrade any received inquiry to an order. After explicit confirmation of that order by the Supplier and by the Buyer, the order becomes final and is accepted by both Buyer and Supplier. By doing so, both Buyer and Supplier agree that they have entered into a contract directly with each other. Pharmaoffer is not and does not become a party to this contract. Nor is Pharmaoffer a participant in any contractual relationship between Buyers and Suppliers, nor is Pharmaoffer acting as an Agent in any capacity for any Buyer and/or Supplier.

Pharmaoffer is only involved in the financial clearance of the transaction between Buyer and Supplier that is provided by the Payment Service Provider (“PSP”) of Pharmaoffer.

Art 1.3

Buyers and Suppliers and any other visitors of the website Pharmaoffer.com hereinafter together also refer to as “User(s)”.
